

Listado de capítulos y autores

1. Fundamental philosophical categories of Roman law in the main speeches of Simón Bolívar. A historical-contemporary approach — Tomás Humberto Rodríguez Caguana; Yuliana Cristina Luna Florin.
2. Roman law, its relevance in ethics and justice. Impact on the training of Ecuadorian lawyers — Andrea Eugenia Pacheco Lemus; Sonia Guerra Iglesias.
3. Dominium, res communes, and the environment: Roman law as an ethical and legal basis for the protection of land and nature in Michoacán — Alejandro Méndez López; Constanza Wulschner Montes.
4. On the historical formation of the general category of voluntary representation — Alessandro Cassarino.
5. Maritime loans in Roman law and the problem of their legal classification — Aldo Petrucci.
6. “Iusto enim metu ductus”: An Exegesis of 9.2.49.1 Based on Its Systematic Harmony with D. 43.24.7.4 (Ulp. Ad Ed. LXXI) — Claudio R. Cuellar.
7. From the Tribunes of the Plebs to the Role of the Constitutional Court as a Counter-Majoritarian Body: An Analysis of the Ecuadorian Context — Ximena Ron Erráez; Daniela Erazo Galarza.
8. From Roman law to clinical simulation: ethical and legal bases for nursing training — Kety Bernardes-Carballo; Elianne Rodríguez-Larraburu; Arahí Sixto-Pérez.
9. Citizen participation in the legislative process: from the Roman comitium to digital crowdlaw — Luis Eduardo Franco Mendoza.
10. Cyberbullying as a new form of defamation: digital violence and its treatment in the light of Roman law — Tapia Bastidas Tatiana; Nivela Cornejo María Alejandrina; Echeverría-Guzman Angel Yasmil.
11. Disability and citizenship: contributions from Roman law to inclusive rehabilitation in Latin America — Laura Rivera Vergara; Gustavo Montijano Damico; Wellington Sauhing Bajaña.
12. Citizenship and Migration in Roman Law: Lessons for the Management of Contemporary Human Mobility — Rously Eedyah Atencio González; Guillermo Ricardo Grunauer Robalino; Geovanna Michelle Nájera Tello; Micaela Naomi Grunauer Jurado.
13. Roman law as a tool for addressing contemporary social and legal challenges: perspectives on the initial training of students in technological institutes — Olga Leonor Maria Lapierre Rodríguez; Rously Eedyah Atencio González; Virginia Bárbara Pérez Payrol.
14. Oral health care as an expression of ius vitae: perspectives from Roman law and its current projection — Rolando Saez Carriera; Tamara Cárdenas Domínguez; María Carolina Mora Herryman.
15. From the Comitium to Parliament: deliberation as the basis of political legitimacy — Alejandro Ricardo Vanegas Maingon.
16. Background of Arbitration Proceedings in Roman Law — Oswaldo Navas Tapia.
17. Latin American identity: a contribution to the construction of the Latin American legal system — Antonio Saccoccio.

18. The Future of Legal and Human Education: Lessons from Roman Law in the Age of AI, Digitization, and Quantum Computing. A Proposal for 2030 — Jorge Francisco Vera Mosquera; Duniesky Alfonso Caveda.
19. Approaching complex topics outside the classroom with gamified transmedia narrative Adaptation of ¡Dejame Ser!: flexibility and consistency — Julio Bonelli Beretta.
20. Artificial intelligence and copyright: the NostalgiA case — Carlos Enrique Benites Alejandría; Gonzalo Ricardo Alegría Varona.
21. Affective AI: Anthropomorphism, Neuroscience, and Ethical Dilemmas of Emotional Computing — Perla Carrillo Quiroga.
22. Socratic interactions with AI in teacher training — Carolina Parra Estrada.
23. Generation Z's dependence on AI: a study of phobias, philiias, and perceptions — Ana Pérez-Escoda; Luis Miguel Pedrero-Esteban; Laura Zazo Correa; Isabel Vázquez Sacristán.
24. Pilot or co-pilot? Creative strategy with the help of AI: the perspective of communication professionals — Paulo Pinto Silva; Luísa Augusto.
25. Knowledge and use of generative artificial intelligence tools in primary and secondary education — María del Carmen Palacios González; Patricia Sánchez-Holgado; Laura Rodríguez-Contreras.
26. Trust and Artificial Intelligence: evaluation criteria and comparison between generalist and specialized chatbots — Juan Narbona.
27. New audiences: challenges for podcast content developers — Rigoberto Albornoz Suárez; Óscar Valenzuela Vargas.
28. Digital Communication Between Consumers and Agri-Food SMEs — Esperanza Casado Jiménez.
29. Cyberbullying practices in young Cape Verdean university students — Bruno Carriço Reis; Paula Lopes.
30. The organizational communicator: Tools for professional practice — Karen Cesibel Valdiviezo Abad.
31. The paradigm shift in immersive journalism through the British media outlet BBC — Víctor Sánchez Franco; David Lavilla Muñoz.
32. Digital populist communication on social networks, strategies, and power — Ana Joaquim.
33. From Information to Participation: Social Media Engagement Strategies in 2026 Portuguese Presidential Race — Alexandre Duarte; Hadassa Oliveira; Alexandra Leandro.
34. Social networks and cultural promotion in Latin America: evaluation of digital strategies and management models — Fanny Yolanda Paladines-Galarza; Karina Paola Valarezo González; Verónica Paulina Altamirano Benítez; Rosario Johanna Puertas-Hidalgo.
35. From Alice to the Algorithm. Narrative Architecture, AI-Generated Images and Imaginary Spaces on Social Media — Laura Sordo Ibáñez.
36. Exploratory study on cocoa production and processing in Santander from the perspective of advertising communication: strategies for social empowerment in rural Colombia — Fabio Andres Ribero Salazar.
37. Religious Symbols in Online Advertising: Affection, Trust, and Purchase Intention — Stover Ezequias.
38. Visual Pollution from Advertising — Xavier Echeverría-Maggi; Cynthia Espíndola Vásquez; Gregory Santamaría; René Garzozzi.

39. Visual Factors in the Commercial Environment and Their Impact on Consumer Perception: A Quantitative Analysis of Urban Commercial Spaces and Their Representation on Social Media — Luis Miguel Olórtégui Alcalde.
40. Speed, Prestige, and Progress: Automobile Advertising Discourses in the Spanish Press during the 1920s Boom — Luis Rodrigo Martín; Palomero Santos, Rubén.
41. Between being and desire: subjectivity and self-perception in personal branding in neoliberal times — Jessica Sandes.
42. Sustainable development between ethics and finance — Manuela Tola.
43. Historical memory of disability reflected in four images from the 20th century, the persistence of paradigms of disregard, medical and social — Sheila Parra Gómez.
44. Valorization of Peruvian cinema: identification of university students with cultural films — Yoana Carolina Armas Lamas; Karl Friederick Torres Mirez.
45. Portuguese Animated Film in the 21st Century: Growth, Recognition, and Audience Challenges — Filipe T. Moreira; Carlos Canelas.
46. Attachment, Care and Sustainability: The Social Value of the Huajsapata Hill in the Eyes of its Local — Karin Margaret Álvarez Rozas; Katia Natalia Barrientos Paredes.
47. Portuguese cinema between 2019 and 2024: production, distribution, and exhibition — Carlos Canelas.
48. Multiparentality in Cuban family law: a possible option — Leonardo Bernardino Pérez Gallardo.